

Access to amateur radio frequencies is a vital component of a free society. Amateur radio is an essential communications supplement in the event of a disaster or emergency, locally and nationally. Amateur radio requires continuous maintenance and testing to remain a robust system. Broadband over power lines has been proven to disrupt amateur radio. BPL will effectively shut down this critical component of our national emergency infrastructure. Please do not approve this misuse of the radio spectrum. Thank you.